DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 22, the term "a determining means" is unclear and lacks antecedent basis. A determining step was previously recited.

2. Claim1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite in that it fails to point out what is included or excluded by the claim language. This claim is an omnibus type claim. Claim recites a method for converting analog input signal to a digital output signal that comprises a plurality of steps; the same claim recites a determining means (last paragraph; lines 22-26) this is improper. A method claims comprises a plurality of steps whereas an apparatus claim comprises a plurality of means or elements.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Art Unit: 2819

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1 and 2-6 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-3 and 13-17 respectively of U.S. Patent No. 6,677,879. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both set of claims disclose the same subject matter with colorable differences. For instance claim 1 of the present application recites "...a first frequency detector for determining a frequency..." where as claim 13 of '879 recites " a first time detector for determining the frequency..."
